Aloha!

Glad you found us! I'm Catherine Lampton, Realtor® Salesperson at Local Hawaii Real Estate, your resource center for all things real estate on Hawai'i Island.

People are attracted to the Big Island for many reasons. Over my 20 years in real estate, I have helped clients invest in rentals, vacant land, and residences as well as those who want to enjoy island life and/or just get away from it all. Plus, we have the best prices in the state. No wonder you are considering buying here!

Coming to Hawai'i in 1997 from the mainland, I knew I had moved to someplace special. The spirit of aloha is amazing, almost anything grows here, almost all climates can be found, and maybe best of all, the sunshine, water, and ocean breezes are free! I decided to get into real estate in 2004 so I could share what I know to help you find your own piece of Paradise. One of my specialties is first time buyers who want information on how to discover and enjoy the uniqueness of Hawai'i.

A graduate of UH Hilo, I majored in communication and am one of the best listeners you will ever meet. I earned my doctorate in leadership, ethics, mediation, and listening. My specialty is the Puna District where I live on two acres of rainforest. There's no place in the world like this, and the friends I have made here have truly become my 'ohana (family).

As you probably know, the real estate market is always changing, and financing is still affordable. If you see something you like or are ready to sell, let's connect!

I look forward to hearing from you,

Catherine Lampton
